

St. Andrew's Tidings

Message from Margaret

Easter week was absolutely glorious! It is due to the hard work of so many people. I offer my sincere thanks to the Music Department, Sue Webb, our Choirmaster and Miriam Gladstone, our Organist, and the entire choir; to the Altar Guild, its chair, Kathy Lo'pez and all the members who worked all week; to the lectors, actors in the Passion Narrative, and Sue Webb who directed the drama; to the many people who participated in the liturgy: the acolytes, crucifers, thurifers, chalicers, banner carriers and streamers and cross bearers; Shirley and Bill Gobat who arranged for the lilies and picked them up, and were the liaisons for Hallmark Florist; the brass quintet and hand bell group; the ushers and greeters; key minister; those who decorated on Palm Saturday; to Camilla Jimmerson and her committee who arranged, decorated and directed the gala reception; to all of you who brought food; the garden crew led by Jr. Warden Art Wimpenny and Bill Lee who bought and planted spring flowers; to the volunteers and Fran Tate who produced a myriad of bulletins; and to Deacon Ray and John Wave—thank you, thank you! I hope I haven't left anyone out!

Home Health Items

We now have a number of home health items that may be checked out when they are needed by parishioners. We have a folding walker, a cane, an over toilet potty seat, and a hand held shower head extension.

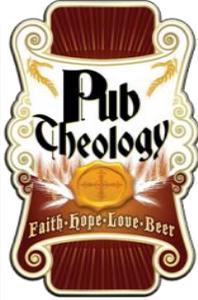

COOK BOOKS

We still have centennial cookbooks for sale! Where else can you get a useful $10 gift? Why not buy several and keep them on hand for those last minute occasions when you need a gift? Plus, the cookbooks reflect the wonderful heritage of our church. Remember, each adult member (male and female) is asked to buy at least two cookbooks to help raise money for the Living Stones campaign. By purchasing cookbooks, each of us takes an active role toward reaching the goals of making our church more accessible and of enhancing a sense of community at St. Andrew's. Visit the table in Byrne Hall and purchase yours today.
