

St. Andrew's Tidings

Message from Margaret+

Will there be enough? Over and over we ask that question, though the specifics vary in each situation. Will there be enough money to live on? Will there be enough time to get everything done? Will there be enough love to heal the pain of separation, grief, or loneliness? Will there be enough of whatever it takes to satisfy the needs of our aching heart?

The situation in this week's gospel is simple; a crowd needs to be fed, and the disciples have only five loaves and two fish. How could that be enough to feed the large, hungry crowd? Yet, Jesus blesses the loaves, and the disciples distribute them to the crowd, and there is more than enough for all. They all eat and are filled, with bread remaining.

It is one thing to hear of this wonderful miracle. It is another to face the hunger and poverty in our world today. The mere thought of such great hunger leaves us overwhelmed, and perhaps pessimistic. The situation is complicated. Yet we know that God's abundance is meant for all. You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

Surely God will provide, and surely we are called to share our bounty. Some people are hungry for bread, and others are hungry for love, peace, or justice. Whatever the hunger, we trust that it is God who satisfies our deepest needs. At the table of the Eucharist we find enough for all.

A great miracle happens each Sunday in the Eucharist. We are transformed into the Body of Christ. Nourished by Christ himself, we are now the bread that will feed the world.

Pennies from Heaven
For Living Stones

Ladies, you know how exasperating it is to have all your change fall to the bottom of your purse; and men, you know how heavy your pockets can become with all that silver. Do we have a deal for you! There is a large bucket for “pocket change” at the back of the worship space for you to dump your change! When the bucket gets filled up, we will have a contest for everyone to guess how much change is in the bucket. The person who comes closest to the amount will win a prize.

If you know someone who used to go to St. Andrew's and might like one of the crosses, please sign the list, leaving their address.

SEATING

Please take advantage of all the front row seats if you are hard of hearing, have a walker or cane. It is so easy to get to Communion from there! You never know when there might a prize under your seat!

Living Water Baptismal Font
Columbarium

Included in our architectural plans, are plans for a columbarium in the narthex. This is over and above the basic price of the renovation. However, structural plans can be made to insert an indoor columbarium if there is enough interested. We have received a price from Armento , a company that does some of the finest work in this area of handiwork . The basic price is $300. Tax would probably be on top of that. They come in a 4 niche setting. So to get one, we would need at least 4 people interested. There will be a table on Sunday with information and pictures if you are interested in reading about it. Then we will put out a list to see how many people are really interested. To build it, would need to have the money ahead of time. Feel free to browse the information.

A number of you have expressed interest. There is a sign-up sheet on the display table in the carpeted area of Byrne Hall.

Contact Information

We are compiling a list of members who do not have family locally. We would like the name/names and phone numbers or other contact information so that we can contact them in case of an emergency. This would be for all members not just older ones. The book with the information will be kept in the church office. Please email your contact information to Hannah Davis at daviskh@aol.com or phone her at 769-4274.
